

STARTING A NEW CHAPTER. BE PART OF OUR STORY.

POSITION: Regular Part-Time Medical Radiation Technologist, Nuclear Medicine

DEPARTMENT: Medical Imaging

POSTING DATE: December 4, 2019

Position Summary:

Reporting to the Technical Specialist, Medical Imaging, Cardiac Diagnostics and EMG, you will be responsible for performing diagnostic Nuclear Medicine procedures in accordance with the College of Medical Radiation Technologists. The Nuclear Medicine is a high volume department. We are seeking a technologist who can work independently as well as be an intricate part of our team. The department has a Hologic BMD and has three GE Nuclear Medicine Gamma cameras one with attenuation correction. The department involves a strong cardiac component.

Mandatory Qualifications:

- C.A.M.R.T. (or equivalent) trained Medical Radiation Technologist required
- Current College of Medical Radiation Technologists NM designation required

Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience in a fast paced Imaging Department preferred
- Current B.C.L.S. Certificate preferred

Mandatory Competencies:

- Demonstrated technical competence and a commitment to quality patient care
- Excellent demonstrated customer service and communication skills
- Willing to work any shift and weekends, and be available to take call if scheduled
- Demonstrated educational and professional involvement as well as a commitment to professional development
- Excellent attendance record
- Excellent demonstrated interpersonal and technical skills

Primary responsibilities also include:

Safety (patient, worker & workplace) is a BCHS Corporate Priority. The successful applicant will demonstrate good stewardship in the identification, reporting and mitigation of unsafe acts or conditions.

To submit your application, please forward your cover letter and resume to humanresources@bchsys.org

The Brant Community Healthcare System (BCHS) is an equal opportunity employer. The BCHS is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace, and welcomes applications from women, members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of all sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression. In order to ensure equal opportunities during the recruitment and selection process, the BCHS provides accommodation for applicants with disabilities upon request.