

As a team we're committed to improving the lives of Albertans and all the communities that are part of it. I feel like we're really setting the standard across the country when it comes to health care.

what's your reason?

There are many reasons to choose Alberta Health Services (AHS) as a way to kick start your career.

At AHS you can have it all. As one of the leading healthcare systems in Canada, AHS gives you the opportunity to grow your career, while making a big difference in the lives of others.

AHS is home to great employment opportunities at over 450 sites in both rural and urban Alberta. Challenge and immerse yourself in an environment that's young, vibrant and always surprising.

At AHS we enable a better quality of life, not only for our patients but for our employees too. Our flexible hours will allow you to juggle your other passions, and the endless recreational opportunities in Alberta will have you embarking on new adventure every week.
