

Hemostasis

Reference Laboratory Inc.

The Hemostasis Reference Laboratory, Inc. (HRL) is currently accepting applications for a Part Time/ Casual Medical Laboratory Technologist to join our research team in Hamilton, Ontario.

Hours of Work:

- Must be available 2 to 3 days per week (Monday to Friday); 7.5 hour shifts.
- Daytime shifts as well as afternoon shifts when required.

Responsibilities:

- Collection, processing, preparation, set up and testing of specimens on various coagulation analyzers.
- Demonstrate good trouble shooting skills and provide recommendations for resolution.
- Respond to client requests and deadlines.
- Prioritize workloads and show good organization skills.
- Communicate effectively both verbally and in writing.
- Physical ability to perform manual methods (e.g., ELISA).
- Demonstrate high level of interpersonal skills & work effectively within a team environment.
- Recording, checking and interpreting test results.
- Demonstrate proficiency with Word, Excel and Outlook at an intermediate level.

Requirements:

- Diploma in Medical Laboratory Technology.
- Member in good standing as a General Medical Laboratory Technologist with the College of Medical Laboratory Technologists of Ontario (CMLTO).
- 3-5 years of recent Laboratory experience an asset.
- Experience in Coagulation is also an asset.

Interested applicants are required to submit your application to info@hemostasislab.com.

We thank all candidates that apply but only qualified candidates will be contacted for an interview.
HRL is an equal opportunity employer.