

IMAGINE YOUR LIFE'S WORK IN OUR PIECE OF PARADISE

Vancouver Island, B.C.

We currently are seeking a part-time Night Shift Coordinator at Nanaimo Regional General Hospital.

As the Night Shift Coordinator, you will be responsible for the operation of the night shift by supervising night shift staff, carrying out related administrative duties, and performing laboratory procedures such as collecting, preparing, processing and testing laboratory specimens that are used by physicians in the diagnosis and treatment of patients.

Qualifications

You have successfully completed a recognized diploma program in Medical Laboratory Technology and are eligible for certification with the Canadian Society for Medical Laboratory Science (CSMLS). At least two years of recent related experience in an appropriate laboratory discipline is also required.

Along with demonstrated leadership and supervisory skills, you are a strong problem solver and you are able to communicate effectively both verbally and in writing.

The NRGH lab serves the busiest Emergency Department on Vancouver Island and the busiest Cancer Centre in B.C. If you are looking for a stimulating job with room to grow, consider joining our wonderful team of lab professionals! The successful candidate is competent to work in Hematology, Chemistry and Transfusion Medicine. Experience reading gram stains is an asset.
